The history of an industrial process that creates ammonia from nitrogen and hydrogen sounds at best boring. Vaclav Smil makes the case instead for the Haber-Bosch process, which allows industrial synthesis of ammonia from atmospheric nitrogen and provides the foundation of our human food supply. Enriching the Earth: Fritz Haber, Carl Bosch, and the Transformation of World Food Production. Dr. Smil is the world's authority on nitrogenous fertilizer. He then looks at various attempts to expand natural nitrogen flows through mineral and synthetic fertilizers. Enriching the Earth: Fritz Haber, Carl Bosch, and the Transformation of World Food Production. Vaclav Smil makes the cogent argument that it is the discovery and industrialization of ammonia synthesis by Fritz Haber and Carl Bosch.
